Facility Usage Guidelines Policy

1. Policy Statement

Denmark Gymnastics (DG) has the responsibility to ensure a safe environment for all participants and staff. This means having policies, procedures, rules, standards, and guidelines that promote safe programs in a safe environment which are overseen by qualified/certified personnel.

This policy is to assist DG staff and user groups with the information on all aspects of DG venue hire and is to be used in conjunction with other DG policies and procedures. The hirer, its employees and volunteers must comply with DG's policies and procedures.

3. Policy Scope

This policy applies to DG staff and user groups hiring DG.

4. Definitions

- DG: Denmark Gymnastic Club.
- Denmark Gymnastics: Gymnastics facility situated at 25 Industrial Road, Denmark WA 6333
- Management: The committee of Denmark Gymnastics.
- Agreement: The written user agreement entered into between DG and the user.
- User: Defined in the agreement and shall include all servants, agents, contractors and invitees of the user.
- Member Club: A gymnastics club that has completed and complies with the affiliation requirement of Gymnastics WA.
- Gymnastics WA: The governing body of the sport of Gymnastics within Western Australia.

5. Authority

Management shall have full responsibility of the operations of DG and shall act on its behalf on all matters of management, supervision and control of the premises. No hire shall be deemed exclusive use with DG staff and representatives able to enter at any time.

The actions of all participants during the hire are the responsibility of the user.

6. Insurance

DG will direct the user to obtain and provide copies of all relevant insurances:

- Third Party Insurance, with a minimum of $10,000,000 coverage for any claim against personal injury or damage to property.
- Workers Compensation Insurance covering all employees, contractors (if required) and sub-contractors of the user.
- Personal Accident cover in respect of volunteers and participants.

In the event that a coach is not from a Member Club, each coach will require liability, professional indemnity and personal injury insurance evidenced by a Certificate of Currency.

7. Risk Management and Indemnification

The user uses DG, its facilities and all equipment within at its own risk with the user indemnifying DG against all losses whatsoever arising from the Users use of DG.

It is the responsibility of the User to familiarise itself and its servants, agents, contractors and invitees with all policies and procedures of DG (including Child Safeguarding protocols).

It is the duty of the User to ensure that the premises are suitable for the purposes contemplated by the user.

All activities, training and/or events are to have appropriately qualified, registered employees, including necessary clearances.

All property brought onto the premises by the User shall be at the Users sole risk.

8. Child Safety

- It is a requirement that all employees, contractors and volunteers of the User must hold a valid Working with Children Check (WWCC).
- All Users of DG must comply with DG's Child Safe Policy.

At Denmark Gymnastics, we are strongly committed to the safety, wellbeing, and empowerment of all children and young people accessing our programs and services. We support their rights and will act immediately to ensure an environment is maintained where all participants feel safe, respected, valued, and empowered.

DG values the contribution of children, young people and families by fostering a culture of openness where they feel comfortable and encouraged to raise their concerns. We have a zero tolerance approach to any form of child abuse.

We are committed to providing our employees with child safe training on an ongoing basis and we partner with parents and families to better protect children through holistic education to identify and respond to potential harm.

DG has adopted and implemented a tailored Child Safe Policy to complement Gymnastics Australia's (GA) Child Safe Policy, to ensure the highest standards are achieved in respect to the protection and safety of all participants.

In addition, DG has several supporting policies and codes of conduct that have been created specifically, to further support our members. These documents are continually reviewed to ensure they are of the highest possible standard. They are accessible on our website and in the reception area of the Club.

DG has a Child Safety Officer and a Member Protection Information Officer to support our Members and Staff in this essential area.

9. Safety

- There should be at least one person under the User who has First Aid qualifications and this person must be in attendance for the duration of hire from the User.
- All breakages and damages must be reported in writing to the Management as soon as possible (within 48 hours). Where fault is determined to lie with the User, a charge will be applied for the repair(s).
- All accidents must be reported in writing to Management as soon as possible (within 48 hours).
- Please take note of all emergency exits should an emergency occur.
- The User shall instruct all attendees of the building evacuation plan in the event of fire or other disaster and formulate a specific plan to evacuate any disabled person among them.
- No portion of the entries, doorways, corridors, passageways, stairways or driveways shall be impeded by the User, or used for any purpose other than that which they were designed.
- Access to public utilities, firehoses, vents, lighting fixtures and switches, shall not be covered or obstructed at any time.

10. Utilities

- DG shall provide reasonable lighting, power and cleaning.
- For all non gymnastics use - i.e., dance classes - only the sprung floor is permitted to be used. NO other gymnastics equipment to be touched or used.
- The gymnasium training area(s) must be kept and left orderly and in a clean manner at all times.
- DG reception/visitor area must be kept and left in an orderly and clean manner at all times.
- No food or drinks (other than water) is to be consumed in the gymnasium at any time.
- DG office area will be out of bounds at all times, unless conducting business with staff at DG.
- Equipment must be left in a standard format at the end of each session, unless otherwise directed by management.

11. Signs, Posters and Attachments

The User shall not permit any of the following without prior approval from Management.

- Fastening of nails, adhesive features, tacks or screws.
- Attachment of signs, posters or any advertising/promotional materials outside of DG.
- Any fastening or attachment tending to injure or deface the premises. The User shall meet any expense associated with the removal or damage caused by unapproved signs, posters or attachments.

12. Misplaced, lost, stolen and abandoned property

DG shall assume no responsibility whatsoever for losses suffered in respect of any misplaced, lost, abandoned or stolen property.

13. Security

Unless arranged prior, the User will be responsible for securing the building at the closure of their session(s). All locks (windows, doors and padlocks) must be secured. Breaches of this will require the User to pay for all associated costs such as theft and vandalism arising as a result of the breach.

14. Objectionable Use or Behaviour

Any use of DG, which is in violation of any laws, shall be a violation of the agreement and shall be ground for immediate terminations of the Agreement between the User and DG. Any person(s) whose conduct is objectionable, disorderly or disruptive to DG, or in violation of any law, shall be refused entrance or shall immediately be ejected from the venue.

15. Denmark Gymnastics Right of Entry

In permitting use of DG, we retain the right to enforce all necessary and property rules for the management and operation of such areas. Duly authorised representatives from DG may enter at any time and on any occasion without any restrictions whatsoever.

16. Termination and Delivery of Notices

DG may terminate the Agreement for any breach of the same or upon insolvency of the User with seven days' notice. DG may terminate immediately without notice in the case of a serious breach. All notices shall be in writing.

17. Force Majeure

In the event that DG's obligations to the User are delayed, prevented or rendered impractical by any of the following events to be to the extent such an event is beyond reasonable control; fire, flood, riot, earthquake, civil commotion or any law, ordinance, rule or regulation, which becomes effective after the date of the Agreement, DG may elect to a temporary termination of the Agreement.

18. Assignment

The User may not assign the rights conferred by the Agreement or permit the use of the whole or part of DG by any party other than the User. Further any shared usage by the User groups requires notification and authorisation by DG.

19. Disclaimer

DG offers their Facility Hire Agreement in good faith based on the details provided by the User to it and reserves the right to advise on alterations or additions to this Agreement should any mistakes, miscalculations or omissions become apparent.
